THE THREE LEGACIES

Step 6

In the Twelve and Twelve, step six starts off with a quote from “a well loved clergyman”. That clergyman was Father Ed Dowling. While not an alcoholic himself, Father Dowling admittedly struggled with his faith at times and he had his own addiction as a chain smoker, which he later was able to give up using the twelve steps. He also suffered from arthritic pain from an early age. All of this may have been the source of a quote attributed to him that many an alcoholic can certainly understand: “if I ever find myself in Heaven, it will be from backing away from Hell.” Meaning that though we may be walking the right path to better lives, we may not have always started out with the best of intentions.

In the Big Book, step six goes by almost in the time it takes to take a sip of coffee. But there’s a lot to step six, which is perhaps why the Twelve and Twelve notes Father Dowling saying that this step “separates the men from the boys”.

We actually began this step back in step three when we made a decision to let go and turn our will over to a higher power (something outside of ourselves) but it was a decision, not an action.

Now that we’ve taken a good look at our drinking, where it took us and what it did to us and those around us, we are at point where we prepare ourselves to take step seven. One might ask, why not just combine six and seven? Because, there is a difference between preparing ourselves and actually doing that which we prepare for. The goal of step six is to ready ourselves so that we are sincere when we take step seven and this is the part that takes it from a seemingly easy step to a much more rigorous one when done properly. We become willing to open the door to things we said we could never do. We become willing to look inward and ask of ourselves: am I willing to see if I’m doing the right thing, am I willing to work toward doing the right thing, am I willing to keep trying. If the answer is no, then there will be no progress, if it’s yes, then our options grow and we’re ready to move to step seven.

STEP SIX

Were entirely ready to have God remove all these
character.

Tradition 6

— Carrying the message to the alcoholic who still suffers. Lest problems of money, property and prestige divert us from our primary purpose. AA pledge to remain poor. It is dangerous for groups to accumulate money, property and unwanted personal authority which generates from material wealth, and may divert us from our primary purpose and lose focus on the drunk.

If we lend the AA name to outside organizations, they may sooner or later want something which we cannot give them which may potentially jeopardize the group and AA as a whole. The Traditions suggest that we must separate the material from the spiritual, and not lend the AA name to any cause other than our own. The founders know from experience, it is best not to get involved.

I feel secure knowing that the AA program is not about making money, but rather helping alcoholics to achieve sobriety. We cannot be all things to all men, and we should not try. "The more AA sticks to its primary purpose, the greater will be its helpful influence everywhere." (Bill W., AA Comes of Age, p.109.) "The core of our AA procedure is one alcoholic talking to another, whether that be sitting on a curbstone or at a meeting." It is the message, not the place; it's the talk, not the alms that does the work." (Bill W., AA Grapevine, May 1948, in, The Language of the Heart, p. 84.) If I let financial difficulties, dominate my thoughts, I am not able to focus on carrying the message to another alcoholic. It is the attraction and not the promotion that helps my sobriety. The more I concentrate on carrying the message and helping another sick and suffering alcoholic, the less I focus on my material problems and realize that as long as I am doing God's will, he will take care of my needs.

TRADITION SIX

An AA group ought never endorse, finance, or lend the AA name to any related facility or outside enterprise, lest problems of money, property, and prestige divert us from our primary purpose.

Reprinted from Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions, p.139, with permission of A.A. World Services, Inc.

TRADITION SIX CHECKLIST

1. Should my fellow group members and I go out and raise money to endow several AA beds in our local hospital?
2. Is it good for a group to lease a small building?
3. Are all the officers and members of our local club for AAs familiar with "Guidelines on Clubs" (which is available free from GSO)?
4. Should the secretary of our group serve on the mayor's advisory committee on alcoholism?
5. Some alcoholics will stay around AA only if we have a TV and card room. If this is what is required to carry the message to them, should we have these facilities?

Concept VI

The long form of Concept VI reads: "On behalf of AA as a whole, our General Service Conference has the principal responsibility for the maintenance of our world services, and it traditionally has the final decision respecting large matters of general policy and finance. But the Conference also recognizes that the chief initiative and the active responsibility in most of these matters should be exercised primarily by the Trustee members of the Conference when they act among themselves as the General Service Board of Alcoholics Anonymous." (Twelve Concepts for World Service, p. 26.) That's a mouth full! One way to break it down is to think about the function of the General Service Conference. They

(the 130+ members) gather in New York for one week each year to discuss, vote, and seek substantial unanimity on a variety of important matters of policy and finance that are relevant to AA world services as a whole. Many AA members will recognize some of these matters as the items that appear on the Delegate's Questionnaire that's shared throughout our Area each spring and on which we get to share our group's conscience. How can the Conference get everything completed and implemented in one week? It can't. So the Conference recognizes that the Trustees (who are themselves members of the Conference) will carry out those responsibilities over the course of the year as they act in their role as the legal custodians of the organization. I heard our North East Regional Trustee once describe this particular act of turning-it-over as a "spiritual handshake". We must trust our trusted servants at all levels to do what's best for our fellowship.

John W., A

CONCEPT VI

The Conference recognizes that the chief initiative and active responsibility in most world service matters should be exercised by the trustee members of the Conference acting as the General Service Board.

CONCEPT VI CHECKLIST

1. Are we familiar with how our General Service Board (G.S.B.) Class A and Class B trustees serve A.A.? Are we familiar with how our other trusted servants serve A.A.?
2. Are we clear about the terms, "chief initiative" and "active responsibility"? Can we see a direct link to our home group?

CHAIR'S CORNER

Something For Everyone

My first home group actually “invented” a service position for me when I reached 90 days of sobriety. I did not yet understand how important this was. Thank God they did.

If you're reading this, there's a good chance you're interested in doing service outside your home group. Good news! We have service positions that range from single-day event support to multiyear leadership/coordination of 12 step services in Nassau County.

Are you new to service outside the home group and just want to have a taste of what it's like to work alongside other like-minded individuals before you commit to taking a bigger bite? We have an upcoming annual picnic on July 17 that could use help with everything from shopping for supplies beforehand, setting up in the morning, and cleaning up at the end of the day. Later on this year, we will be hosting a number of Alkathons with similar service opportunities.

Or perhaps you have technical skills with zoom meetings, website design/development, or multi platform communications? Our Tech Committee would love to have a chat with you.

Maybe you're a people person with the gift of gab and a solid understanding of our traditions of cooperation and non-affiliation — while maintaining anonymity? We have committees that need people like you to talk with professionals in various fields, and the general public.

You might even have specific skills like bookkeeping or volunteer management that could come in handy in keeping track of our AA dollars and supporting our volunteers.

Whether you're ready to dip your toe in the water or dive right in, I hope you'll drop me a line. When that home group invented that service position for me, they told me something I didn't yet know: that AA needed me. Well, guess what? It needs you too!

DISTRICT COMMITTEE MEMBER CHAIR'S DESK

I am a white Caucasian that sobered in Canarsie. I joined the Canarsie Group and it met two times a week. I was willing to travel by train and by bus too visit groups from a range of different social and ethnic backgrounds and of different genders and sexual orientations. At the time I had my personal self-surrender, the AIDS Epidemic was in full flight. Some of the friends that I grew up with in Canarsie had been diagnosed with the Virus. I would meet up with them at Gay Men's' Health Crisis to attend a weekly AA meeting. The meeting also on St Marks Place I attended. It was said that if you could sober there, you could sober anywhere. I was able to purchase a New York Intergroup Meeting Directory. I was a meeting maker; meeting makers makes it. I loved listening to the personal surrender. First Step experiences, at those meetings I attended. Most importantly was listening to members different from myself discuss their submission to turn their will and life to God and how they understood Him to be.

I worked in Manhattan in a family business. I was able to make meetings allover the borough. Lower Broadway to Upper Manhattan & River to River. All the time identifying, not comparing. I was born to a family; I joined a spiritual family. That family is Alcoholics Anonymous.

I currently live in Nassau County. As I became willing to serve at Nassau Intergroup & now Nassau General Service. I gave reports at LICYPAA, District 2-14 and Assemblies. Diversity is an action. It is a participation, a cooperation, and a partnership.

Nassau County General Service held a County Inventory in December of 2020. I began being DCMC in the beginning of 2021. The inventory had a discussion regarding diversity. I asked myself who has been part of NGSG and if asked would be willing to stand as a Committee Chair? I reached out to many nationalities to stand as a Standing Chair? Let me be honest I love diversity and wholeheartedly believe in the need to invite so, we do have diversity in our AA community.

JUNE FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial Review—Extra Funds: Opportunity and Obligation

Last month we mentioned the long form of Tradition Seven which says, “We view with much concern those AA treasuries which continue, beyond prudent reserve, to accumulate funds for no stated AA purpose.” We noted too that Intergroup’s By-Laws (Article VIII) set a limit to the funds on hand in both our Operating and Reserve accounts relative to a given year’s budget. (The 2022 Intergroup budget as amended last month is almost $89,600.) That’s the obligation side of things, what we have a responsibility to at least think about when looking at Intergroup’s financial management.

We also talked about the opportunity currently having some extra money this year presents to do additional service consistent with the principles which guide Intergroup’s purpose. Here, opportunity and obligation come together, and present us with some enviable choices.

Looking back, in the first year of the pandemic, our activities were pared down to bare essentials like rent, insurance and utilities for the office and few other things as New York essentially locked everything down. Contributions in that period fell off critically as most groups no longer met face to face, and most groups meeting virtually didn’t know how to pass a virtual basket. Literature sales stopped.

We came up with conservative budget plans for the following two years. And in that period which takes us to today, Intergroup has enjoyed the rebounding of the traditionally generous support of local groups, and of the small profits’ literature sales bring as things are resettling somewhat following the extreme challenges of 2020. So, we’re in very good shape financially right now.

We’ve been talking for while about the opportunity having some extra funds presents. The opportunity is exciting, and probably fleeting.

Are there additional things our service committees might like to do? Are there things that need to be done in the office that have been put off or overlooked including perhaps replacing some of the aging furniture, equipment and fixtures? Are there other possible things we haven’t considered? By now, some good ideas have been floated for new or expanded projects and others may yet come in to take advantage of the available funds. We’re not going to just throw money around. That’s not our way, but we have a chance to be thoughtful, creative, and effective.

While we added just under $2000 last month to the current budget for the Newsletter, the Exchange Meeting and Public Information, nothing is decided concerning anything big. Insofar as any additional new spending this year will require further amendments to the current budget, watch for news of the development of any extra projects. Your group can have its say at the monthly Intergroup Reps meeting where such things are decided.

As to next year, the budgeting process for 2023 will begin in earnest in the fall (once we have the third quarter’s finances behind us, YTD income and expenses through September), but it’s not too early to be thinking about it. That process will look back on recent experience and trends and will use that to make an educated guess as to what opportunities and challenges 2023 may offer for AA service at Intergroup. The 2023 Budget proposal will be presented in November and settled in December. Watch for that too so your group can have its say.

What is the role of Financial Review (FR) in all of these matters? Again, the By-Laws, Article VIII gives us some idea as do the recently adopted guidelines, “Fiscal Management: Policies and Procedures.” For the most part, both suggest FR simply “reviews” fiscal matters bringing to bear past experience, best practices, Intergroup guidelines and AA principles, making suggestions but not acting as a gatekeeper or governor, kind of a watchdog without teeth, noisy perhaps but limited. FR has the final say on nothing. It offers suggestions and points things out as we notice and understand them, and then it is up to the greater process of the “informed group conscience” to decide the course. That group conscience ultimately speaks through the monthly Intergroup Reps meeting where the deciding majority voice by design is always with the participating groups themselves.

Hope this is helpful.

LITERATURE CHAIR'S CORNER

Let's talk about the "Newcomer Packet". Our office has prepared for your purchase at a cost of just $1.00, a newcomer packet which includes many pamphlets that may be helpful for a newcomer. These packets include pamphlets such as Questions and Answers on Sponsorship, this is AA, Is AA for You, A Newcomer Asks, Information on AA, Problems other than Alcohol, Why We Were Chosen, Making a Start in AA, Where Do I Go From Here, and has a QR code located on the outside of the envelope to assist in locating AA meetings in Nassau County. There is also room on the envelope to get names and phone numbers of other Alcoholics. Many beginner meetings have purchased these packets, and will hand them out to the newcomer when they attend the meeting. This is just one way of assisting a newcomer with getting started in Alcoholics Anonymous. So stop by the office, and obtain your packet!

One of the other pamphlets which might be of interest would be A.A. for the Older Alcoholic - Never too late. This pamphlet is in large print so why not check it out (without those reading glasses!). We have plenty in stock at the intergroup office.

Any literature requests can be obtained via email at literature@nassauny-aa.org or in person at the office between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.. Just please phone ahead at 516-292-3040 to assure someone is at the office as there are some days where volunteers are answering the phones virtually. If you have a special literature request, arrangements can be made for someone to meet you at the office.

June 10-1945- AA's 10th Anniversary

"AA is much bigger than any of us"

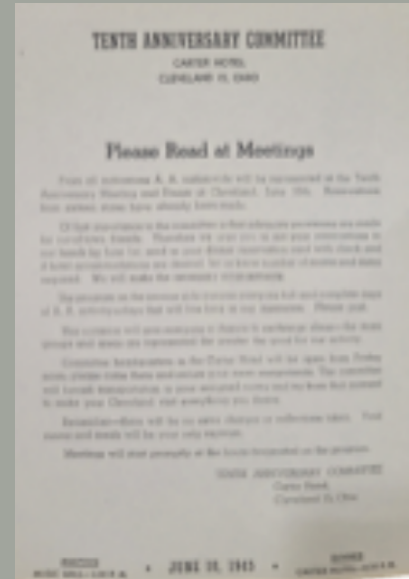

That statement was part of Bill's closing remarks at AA's 10th anniversary celebration in Cleveland Ohio. There were about 2500 members attending the two-day event and following Bill, Dr. Bob spoke briefly about the development of AA in Akron, his home town.

Indeed, this June 10th, 87 years later from AA's founding -that statement is as true as it was then. Covid 19 hit in 2020 and forced us into new and exciting challenges. AA members worldwide, in the last two years have found out just how "Big" AA is. Whether at the home group, district, area, general service conference and one international convention, all going virtual we saw that.

We are gradually coming back to the way we began thankfully, 'Face to Face' in addition to "Modem to Modem". Remember while the individual must do it himself, we do it together, so keep the connection going, live or on line, always moving forward into the future. Happy Founder's Day! Interested in Archives? A LETTER FROM YPAA...

What is YPAA?

The acronym, YPAA, stands for Young People in Alcoholics Anonymous. By this we mean someone who shows symptoms of alcoholism or someone who has gotten sober at an early age, or an alcoholic who is young at heart. We think that any members of AA, who are willing to grow in their sobriety, are young alcoholics. The Purpose of YPAA is to carry the message of Alcoholics Anonymous within the young community of AA. YPAA operates in the spirit of the three legacies of AA: Recovery, Unity, and Service.

ESCYPAA:

LICYPAA (Long Island Committee of Young People in Alcoholics Anonymous) is now dormant. Meaning we no longer operate under that committee name for the time being. We held our elections and formed the ESCYPAA 8 Host committee after winning the bid at ESCYPAA 7. After the conference, LICYPAA will likely reform and continue their service work on Long Island. This year's convention will be held at the Huntington Hilton Hotel in Melville, NY, on the weekend of October 28 – 30, 2022. Our Long Island based Committee will be organizing many exciting events in advance of the convention in order to raise funds and remain fully self supporting, foster unity, and encourage people to have some fun! How Can You Help? We are fully self supporting in accordance with the 7th Tradition, so we will be fundraising by throwing many events, selling pre registration/scholarships, and merchandise. Scholarships are a ticket for someone who can not afford it and are the same price as the pre registration. You can purchase them through our website. The price is set to increase steadily until the day of the convention. If groups want to contribute, they can do so by purchasing scholarships. www.escypaa8.org With Love and Service,
